Dashboard

On the right side of your interface, you have access to your dashboard which summarizes the number of candidates you have submitted as well as the number of ongoing messages with the hiring managers in the "message" tab.

2 Tab : Candidates

The screenshot displays the 'Candidates' tab interface. At the top, there are five filter tabs: 1 All, 2 Waiting, 3 Accepted, 4 Refused, and 5 Canceled. The 'Waiting' tab is selected. Below the tabs, there are four candidate cards arranged in a 2x2 grid. Each card contains the following information:

- Candidate ID #15 (React Developer) - Status: Waiting (purple label). This CV is waiting. Comment: test. Creation: 2024-02-26, Update: 2024-02-26. Buttons: Show Resume (green), Cancel (yellow).
- Candidate ID #6 (Symfony Developer) - Status: Waiting (purple label). This CV is waiting. Comment: Test Inpi. Creation: 2024-02-19, Update: 2024-02-19. Buttons: Show Resume (green), Cancel (yellow).
- Candidate ID #4 (Symfony Developer) - Status: Canceled (orange label). This CV is no longer available. Comment: SD candidat. Creation: 2024-01-30, Update: 2024-01-30. Buttons: Show Resume (green), Cancel (yellow).
- Candidate ID #3 (Symfony Developer) - Status: Refused (red label). This CV is no longer available. Comment: SD candidat. Creation: 2024-01-30, Update: 2024-01-30. Buttons: Show Resume (green), Cancel (yellow).

Candidates

It is in your candidates tab that you can manage all the options related to your candidates. You will be able to see all the candidates (1) you have submitted as well as the positions for which you have submitted them. You can also see your (3) accepted, (4) rejected, or (2) pending candidates. This is also where you can cancel a submission (5) if your candidate is no longer available, for example.

3 Tab : Messages

Messages

The screenshot shows a user interface for a 'Messages' tab. At the top, there's a header 'Messages'. Below it, a card displays information for 'Candidate ID #2', a 'Symfony Developer'. A status message says 'XY have accepted this CV'. Below this is a comment 'Comment : blabla 2'. A table-like structure shows '2024-01-30' for 'Creation', '2024-01-30' for 'Update', and '3 Messages'. At the bottom, there are two green buttons: 'Show Resume' and 'Messages'. Numbered callouts are placed as follows: (1) on the 'Show Resume' button, (2) on the candidate ID, (3) on the comment, and (4) on the 'Messages' button.

This is where you will be able to communicate with hiring managers once they have accepted your CVs. You will find all the information related to your candidates (1), the positions (2), as well as the comments (3) you left when you submitted the CVs.

When you press the "message" button (4), you will be redirected to your messaging interface where you can exchange messages with the hiring manager in charge of the position.

Anonymous CVs: The Future of Recruitment

Anonymous CVs are revolutionizing the recruitment process by reducing unconscious bias and promoting diversity and inclusivity. By removing identifiable information from CVs, such as names and photos, recruiters can focus solely on the qualifications and experience of candidates. Embracing anonymous CVs not only benefits candidates from underrepresented groups but also offers advantages to employers, leading to a more diverse pool of talent and innovative thinking in the workplace.

Help

— As a hiring company, can I be sure to receive resumes ?

No, unfortunately we cannot guarantee that you will receive resumes from recruiters. This can depend on several factors such as the difficulty in finding the right profile, the attractiveness of the position and company, the salary offered, the commission you are willing to grant to the recruiter, etc.

— As a hiring manager, can I indicate the amount of recruitment fees I want to allocate per position in advance?

Yes, this is also a feature available when you add a job on your interface. You can also indicate that you are open to negotiation to find a common ground. We always recommend activating this feature to allow for flexibility in negotiations.

— As a hiring manager, can I limit the number of CVs received per position?

Yes, this is a feature available when you add a job on your interface. You can also limit the number of CVs sent by each recruiter.

— As a recruiter, can I send something other than a CV to hiring companies ?

Yes, you can add a comment with the CV so that the hiring manager has all the relevant information about the profile.

— Do you verify the companies registered on your platform?

Yes, all registrations on our platform, whether it is from hiring companies or recruiters, undergo a manual internal verification process. We check that all information provided is correct through an investigation. If we have any doubts about the information, we temporarily suspend the accounts to request more information about the person or the company. If, after obtaining the information, we are still unable to confirm the identity of the person or the company, the account is permanently blocked. Moreover, recruiters are subject to an ethics charter that you can find here.

— Does Hiring notes work for any hiring company?

Yes, Hiring notes is accessible to all companies regardless of their industry or size.

— For which countries can hiring companies post their job ads?

Our platform is accessible for hiring companies in Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Greece, Hong-Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Norway, Monaco, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Singapore, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, UAE, United States and United Kingdom.

— How do hiring managers and recruiters connect when they are interested in a CV?

When a CV is accepted, you will be connected through a messaging system available on your respective interfaces. For hiring managers, this is available in the "My recruiters" tab, and for recruiters, it is available in the "My hiring managers" tab.

— How does Hiring notes work for hiring companies?

Here is where you will find our FAQ with all the questions you may have regarding how our platform works. If you cannot find an answer to your question, we invite you to contact our support at support@hiringnotes.com and we will try to respond to your question as quickly as possible.
